Re: Certification of CPNI Filing Feb. 6, 2006 (EB-06-TC-060)

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Touch-Tel USA is a registered telecommunications carrier that is exclusively engaged in the sale of prepaid calling cards. Touch-Tel has no knowledge of or access to the identity of any customers that purchase or use its calling cards. Accordingly, although Touch-Tel is a "telecommunications carrier," our business does not include collecting, retaining, or in any way using any customer proprietary network information ("CPNI"). As a result, Touch-Tel does not have procedures in place for handling CPNI. Should Touch-Tel enter any business in the future which would entail the collection, retention, or use of CPNI, Touch-Tel will implement procedures for handling CPNI consistent with the guidelines in the Commission's rules.

Out of an abundance of caution, Touch-Tel is submitting this letter to reassure the Commission that Touch-Tel is committed to complying with the Commission's rules.

Respectfully submitted,

Amanul Syed
CEO, Touch-Tel USA
